

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY.

SCHOOL OF LAW

October 26, 2011

Dear Colleague:

I am writing to introduce you to Hofstra Law School's Master of Laws (LL.M.) in American Legal Studies program for internationally educated law graduates. I would appreciate the enclosed brochure and poster be displayed at your bar association or on your website. With the gracious support of colleagues like you, Hofstra Law enrolled over 40 new international students into our programs this fall. By sharing these programs with your members, you introduce an opportunity for study at a highly regarded New York law school and a gateway to being an attorney in the United States.

Located in the greater New York City region, Hofstra Law School's mission is to prepare passionate students to make an impact in their communities and beyond. Accredited by the American Bar Association and Bar Council of India, Hofstra is a proud member of the International Association of Law Schools and ranked in the top 100 United States law schools.

Hofstra Law School designed the American Legal Studies LL.M. program for lawyers trained outside of the United States who want to advance their careers. The LL.M. program meets the needs of lawyers who either wish to practice law in the United States or return to their home countries. Hofstra's one year full-time LL.M. program trains students to handle the increasing internationalization of legal practice and navigate transactions involving the laws of multiple nations. This program also qualifies foreign law graduates to sit for the New York bar examination and become licensed attorneys. Scholarships are available for the fall of 2012 and are awarded to highly qualified applicants.

Hofstra Law School welcomes students from around the world to our programs and maintains a growing network of international partners. To learn more about Hofstra Law and our 40th year of creating global impact, visit our Web site at <http://law.hofstra.edu>. If your association is ever interested in a partnership, please feel free to contact me. Thank you for your time and assistance.

Respectfully,

Jeffrey A. Dodge, Esq.

Assistant Dean for Global Initiatives & Multicultural Affairs

Jeffrey.Dodge@hofstra.edu • (516) 463-0417

Hofstra Law

EST. 1970

American Legal Studies Master of Laws-LL.M.

Hofstra Law School, located 40 km from New York City, has designed the LL.M. program in American Legal Studies for graduates who received their law degrees outside the United States and seek to gain a profound understanding of U.S. law.

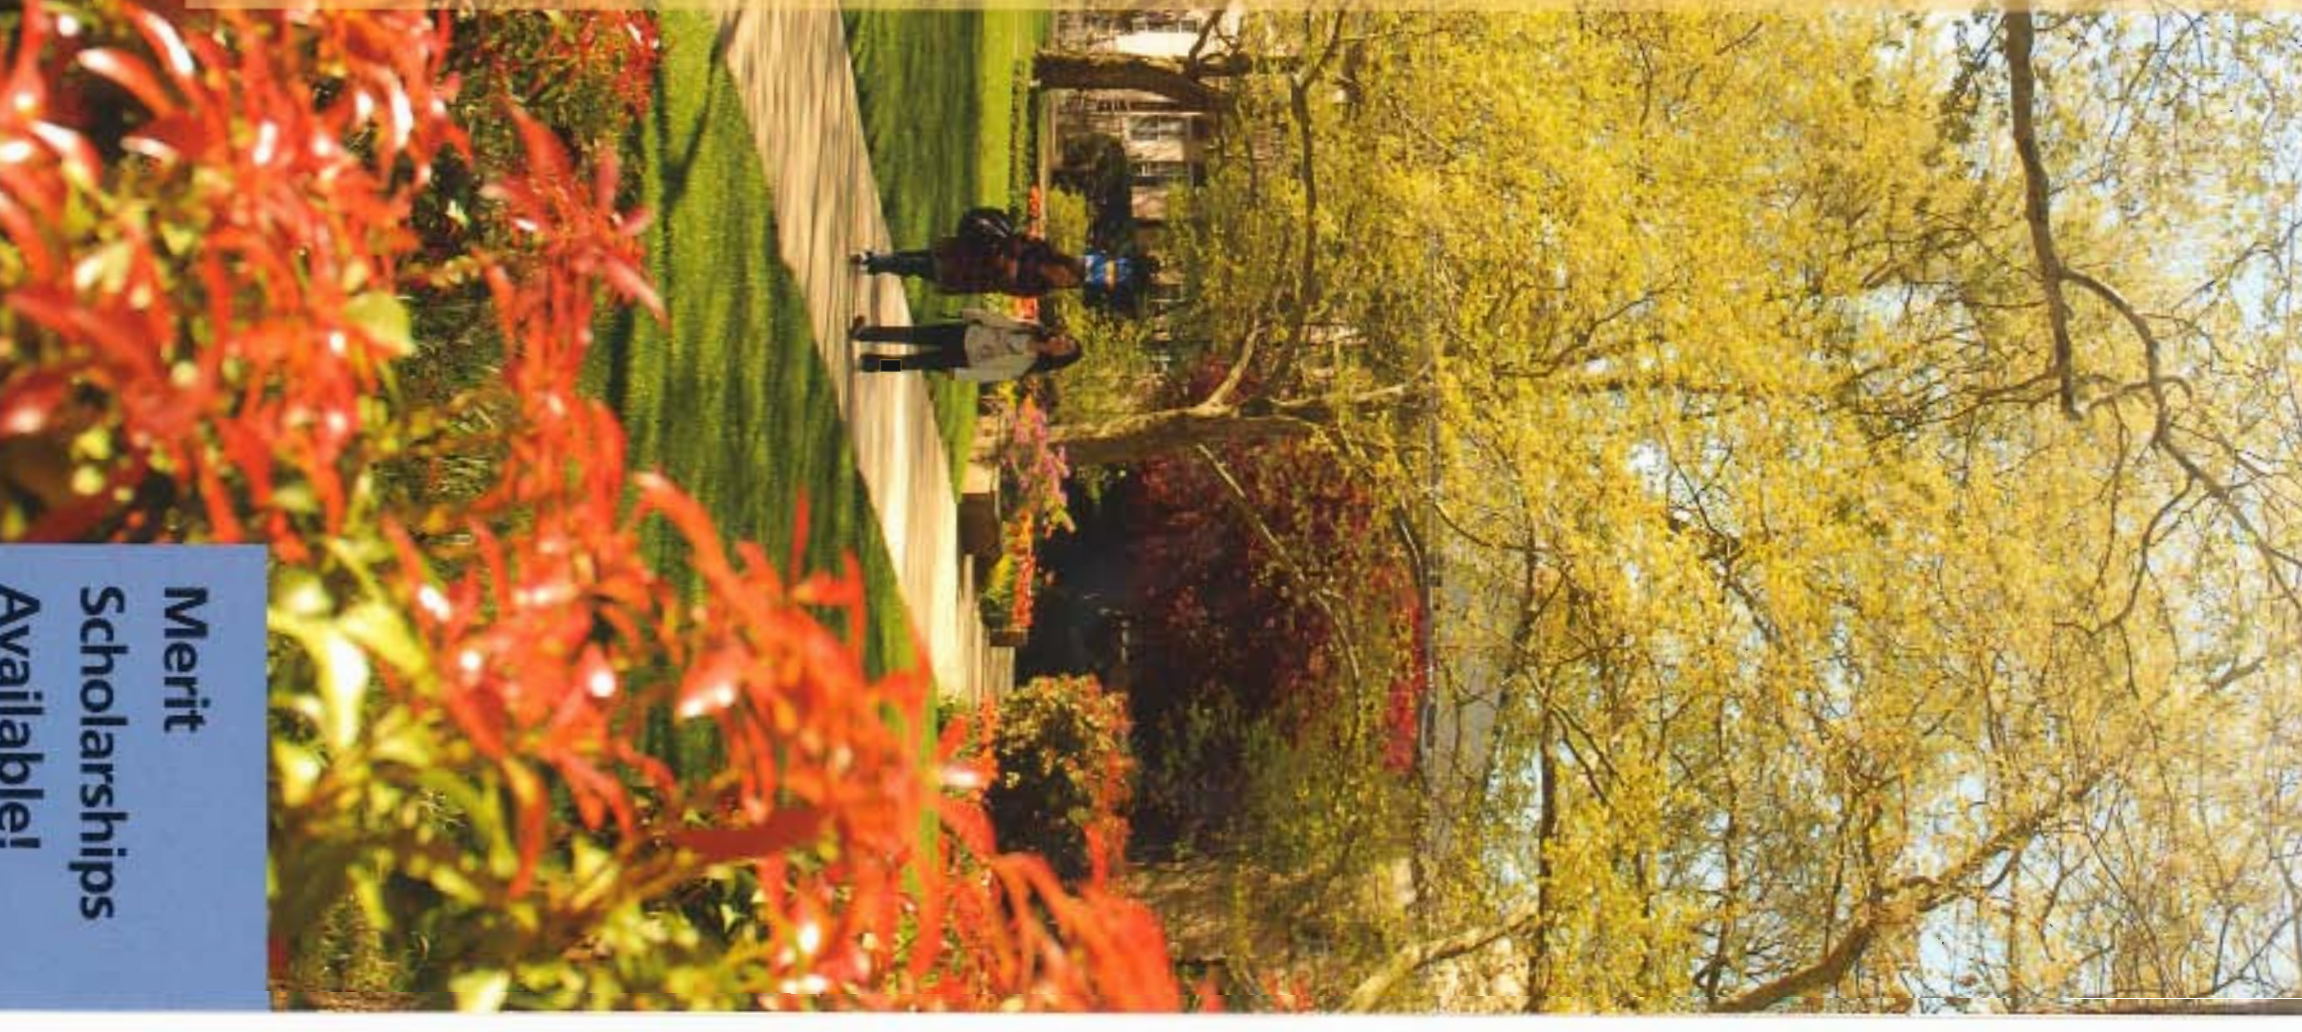

This program qualifies students to sit for the New York bar exam and become licensed U.S. attorneys. An LL.M. in American Legal Studies is a valuable credential that will accelerate your career path, whether you are returning to your home country or entering the U.S. legal field.

To find out more about Hofstra Law School's LL.M. program, or request a brochure contact:

Jeffrey A. Dodge

Assistant Dean for Global Initiatives & Multicultural Affairs

Jeffrey.Dodge@hofstra.edu
(516) 463-0417

Merit
Scholarships
Available!